

Get PAID job training—earn up to $10,000 more... and you'll get to get to work with amazing people.

Become a Direct Support Professional (DSP) with Black Hills Works. What's a DSP? Someone caring—like you—that helps people with disabilities lead their best lives.

On any given day, you might:

- Help someone while they run errands or go grocery shopping.
- Take them to appointments or give them their medicine.
- Help them prepare meals, cook, clean, eat, take care of personal hygiene, and just get around outside and inside their home.
- Go to local sporting events, concerts, movies, restaurants—and even go on trips and vacations!

Our credentialing program is your opportunity to:

1. get extra paid training
2. learn how to provide better care
3. grow as a person
4. and earn more!

"The program has been fun and engaging. Tanya has become a mentor to me through this process. This mentorship has been a huge step in my self development. I would definitely recommend the program to anyone who is willing to work on becoming your best self!"
