

Attention Students:

Black Hills State University TV Station is hosting the 2021 Film Festival for student film makers. The top prize includes a $500 scholarship to BHSU.

BHSU is located in scenic Spearfish, South Dakota right next to Spearfish Canyon where one can easily rock climb, mountain bike, hike, and camp. Also nearby is a town of small shops, perfect college hangouts, and delicious eateries.

BHSU offers a variety of degrees including various types of bachelors in Mass Communications. Benefits of attending BHSU include small class size structure, one on one sessions with professors and tutors, easy to navigate campus, delicious food in the campus hive, on and off campus living arrangements, and many fun events to make long lasting memories.

The 2021 Film Festival entries can be made with any format as long as the video is able to play, can include graphics, pictures, and music. The segment can be any type of video as long as it does not exceed 6 minutes and 30 seconds.

Here are a few rules to keep in mind:

- There cannot be any foul or hateful language.
- There is no nudity allowed in any parts of the video.
- People who will be participating must have a signed written consent. (see forms)
- All content must be original to persons submitting.

Please fill out the forms and submit them with the video to KBHUTV@gmail.com. All entries must be submitted by Tuesday, March 23rd, 2021 at 11:59 p.m. MST. Winners will be announced on Zoom and in person at the Joy Center at BHSU campus on Tuesday, April 6th 2021 from 1 p.m. to 3p.m. MST. A zoom link will be provided closer to April 2021.

We are excited to see what you have in store for us. We hope you will come experience the beauty of the Black Hills at Black Hills State University.

Sincerely

The KBHU TV TEAM

Dr. Scott Clarke – Associate Professor/Advisor

Samantha Rider – Station Manager

Brittany Birgen – Production Manager

Katherine Kemp – Social Media Manager

Olivia Clarke – Station Scheduler

Emma Zimmer – Production Assistant

Kathryn Hastings – Production Assistant