

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Academic

All students enroll in A&S 100 (College Success Strategies) and NATV 194 (Work Life Experience) and select two additional courses from the following options:

- ARTH 251 (American Indian Art History)
- ENGL 101 (Composition I)
- PSYC 101 (General Psychology)
- SPCM 101 (Fundamentals of Speech)

These credits will transfer to their selected university after the completion of the program.

Residential

Each student will enjoy a private suite in the 7TH GEN.® Summer Program's residential suites.

Work Experience

All students participate in a 22 hour a week paid work experience at the Crazy Horse Memorial.

Options include:

- The Welcome Center
- Ticket Office
- Restaurant & Snack Shop
- Gift Shop
- Tour Guide

Students are given the opportunity to select their preferences for positions through the application process.

Tuition, Fees, Room and Board

Total Cost to Student: $800 for Food/Lodging + $50 Room Deposit = $850

Crazy Horse Memorial Foundation® fully funds student tuition, books, and the majority of student food and lodging expenses. Students have the option to deduct their share of the food/lodging costs ($800) from their bi-weekly paychecks and they will also have the opportunity to earn back 50% of their food/lodging expense ($400) at the end of their summer through a specialized incentive program.
